

CHAPTER SEVEN

IMAGE OF GOD

DANIEL: The image of God has been nothing but mere words to the religions of men. Understanding the most important foundational words in the Bible, evening, morning, and day, has remained dormant for thousands of years. For good reason. The Bible was written to be understood in stages of time. And now is the time—the End of Times.

THOMAS: End of Times? Now? Where do you get that from?

DANIEL: It is written in the Bible that Daniel's vision must be kept secret until the End of Times. Well, here we are.

THOMAS: You must prove your concept of the image of God.

DANIEL: So how do you want me to prove to you that the path of salvation—man-Jesus-God, or body-soul-spirit, or evening-morning-day is the image of God, if you are not called by God to seek His Face?

THOMAS: Since evening, morning, and day as God is a new concept, that I have never heard before, it needs to be proven to me.

DANIEL: (Head back laughing) New? Ha, ha, ha. It's been there thousands of years and now you say it's new? How can you justify that statement? How do you want me to prove it to you, Thomas?

THOMAS: All you have given me so far is some hair-brained idea that evening, morning, and day is God, and that something Jesus said about three births lines up.

DANIEL: (counting with his fingers to three) I thought your concept
