

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

THE PERFECT SALVATION

THOMAS: (Thomas' cell phone rings) Hello.

PASTOR: Hey, Tom. I'm still at the office, and my visitor just left. Are you still there at the gravestone?

THOMAS: Yep. You wouldn't believe it if I told you everything. He's been quoting from the Gospel of Thomas, and now the Qur'an.

PASTOR: Oh my! He must be a Gnostic. Maybe you should get out of there!

THOMAS: You wouldn't believe it. You know those two scripture references you gave me? Well, he used them to show me his God of the Creation. But the worst thing is, he called my salvation imperfect.

PASTOR: Wow! You need to show him Romans 10: 9-10. That describes the doctrine of salvation by faith.

THOMAS: Thanks, John. I'll let you know how it goes. (click)

DANIEL: So, what did your Pastor say, Thomas?

THOMAS: He said to look at Romans 10: 9 and 10. It is basically the sinner's prayer.

DANIEL: I can show you that it follows our agreed upon path for salvation—man, Jesus, God—1, 2, 3.

THOMAS: Is that still the evening, morning, day path?
